Shooting Hoops

"Let's shoot some hoops," said Pip. She scooped up the ball and tossed it to Tom.

"Cool!" said Tom. "I like shooting hoops!" He shot the ball up to the net, but it went over the net and onto the roof.

"Oh no!" said Pip. She ran and got a broom.

"Why do you have a broom?" asked Tom.

"You will see," said Pip.

She took the broom and used it to push the ball off the roof.

"What a cool idea!" said Tom. "You are smart!"

Pip tossed the ball to Tom. "This time try to shoot the ball into the hoop and not onto the roof!" she said.
