

Ponies at the Park

One day a lot of families took their kiddies to the park. There was going to be a parade of ponies. The families wanted to make movies of the kiddies riding the ponies. But when each kiddy got on the pony, they started to cry. Their loud cries could be heard all over the park!

The families tried and tried to get the kiddies to ride the ponies, but no luck. Then one mom had an idea to try. “Maybe if I get a goody for my kiddy, she will dry her eyes!”

She bought a smoothie, fries, and a pastry. The idea worked! Her kiddy liked the goodies and got on the pony.

Then all the families got some goodies. All the kiddies rode the ponies and ate fries and pastries and drank smoothies as they rode the ponies around the park.
