

A Surprise in the Woods

“Come and look at what I discovered in the woods!” said Caileen.

“I am disinterested in looking at something in the woods,” said Lain.

“Come on, it’s important,” said Caileen.

Lain followed Caileen a long distance into the woods.

“Look!” said Caileen, pointing to a hole with four baby kittens.

Lain looked in disbelief at the small kittens. “Where is the mom?” she asked.

“Something disturbed her, and she has disappeared. I discovered them yesterday, and she has not been back,” said Caileen.

“They are wet and smell,” said Lain. “They are a bit disgusting!”

The girls took the kittens to the vet. He looked at them in dismay. “You girls saved the kittens,” he said. “I will take care of them and find them good homes!”
