

A Surprise Party for Grandma

“We are going to have a surprise party for Grandma,” said Amy.
“We need to plan several things to eat that are meatless because she doesn’t eat meat.”

The family made endless lists to plan the party.

The day of the party, Amy tried to put up some sparkly lights.
“I am hopeless,” she said. “I can’t get them up!”

“I can do it,” said Kelly.

“OK, but don’t be careless,” said Amy.

Kelly was not careless. She did a flawless job on the lights, and they sparkled perfectly for the party.

“Surprise!” they all shouted when Grandma came into the house.

“Oh my goodness!” said Grandma.

“Did you know we were planning a party?” asked Amy.

“No! I was clueless!
What a wonderful family!”
Grandma said with fondness.

